It was the purpose of the original Ritual Committee to compile a book for the membership of the Marine Corps League on the proper procedures for opening and closing meetings; to conduct initiations and installations; and to conduct funeral and memorial ceremonies befitting our departed Marines and FMF Navy Corpsmen.

Introduced at the National Staff Meeting, Arlington, VA, February 21, 1965, this Ritual was adopted in its entirety by a unanimous vote of the National Staff.

Officers of Detachments and Ritualistic Teams (where used), are asked to study their parts carefully, so that when a ceremony is to be conducted, it will be with the dignity befitting the Marine Corps League.

FOREWORD

In revising the procedure for conducting meetings of Detachments, recognition has been given to the present day status of the League as a full fledged Veterans organization having National scope and dignity. It has also been recognized that some Detachments are comparatively small in membership and limited in size and adaptability of quarters. Nevertheless, the Committee felt that the importance of dignity of the various ceremonies of the League should not, to an unreasonable extent, be sacrificed for expediency. It was felt that with the passage of time acquaintance and knowledge of the various ceremonies will demonstrate the importance of dignity and solemnity of all official occasions conducted in the course of League business.

In the case of small Detachments, the ceremonies may be conducted by assigning more than one part to one individual, though this is not recommended. Also, quarters may be adapted according to local conditions, but so far as reasonably possible, quarters should be arranged as illustrated by the following diagram. The Initiation ceremony may be abridged. It is our intent that the applicant for membership receives a favorable and lasting impression of the League at the beginning of his/her affiliation. Complete information concerning the League can be imparted in a Ritualistic Ceremony, in a very short period of time, if the entire Initiation Ceremony is used. Always remember that the World and the New Member will never respect or value the League in any greater degree than the League respects and values itself.

Persons not members of the Marine Corps League may be permitted to witness all ritualistic ceremonies, but they shall be excluded from the meeting during the conduct of other official business.

CONDUCTING A REGULAR LEAGUE MEETING

REGULAR MEMBERS - INITIATION CEREMONY

NOTE: The applicant(s) for membership is to receive complete information concerning the Marine Corps League upon admission to membership. Great care should be exercised to the end that dignity, importance and value of membership are impressed upon the applicant's mind. If an abridged ceremony is used, it is important that the context and meaning is not lost in the interests of brevity. With brief practice, you will find that using the entire ceremony is really not as lengthy as it would appear.

COMMANDANT: We are now prepared to instruct and obligate the applicants for membership in the _____ Detachment of the Marine Corps League. All present are requested to maintain a quiet and respectful decorum, refrain from smoking and such other conduct as may detract from the seriousness and solemnity of the occasion. Listen carefully and ponder well what you shall hear.

COMMANDANT: Sergeant-at-Arms, you will present such applicant(s) as may be seeking admission to membership in the Marine Corps League to the Altar.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Aye, aye, Sir. (Applicants are presented in formation before the Altar.)

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Sir Commandant, the following applicant(s) expressed a desire to be instructed in the principles of the League and to be obligated as member(s). (Read names)

COMMANDANT: Marines (and FMF Corpsmen), you are assembled to be obligated for membership in the _____ Detachment of the Marine Corps League. Here you will find Marines and FMF Corpsmen who have served or are serving in and with the United States Marine Corps faithfully and are joined together by certain high principles and for worthy purposes among which are:

(a) To preserve the traditions and to promote the interests of the United States Marine Corps.

(b) To band together those who are now serving in the United States Marine Corps or as FMF Corpsmen and those who have been honorably discharged from that service, in fellowship that they may more effectively promote the ideals of American freedom and democracy.

(c) To fit members for the duties of citizenship and to encourage them to serve as ably as citizens as they have served the nation.

(d) To hold the history and memory of all men and women who have given their lives for our Nation.

(e) To foster love for the principles which they have supported by blood and valor since the founding of the Republic.

(f) To maintain true allegiance to American institutions.

(g) To create a bond of comradeship between those in service and those who have returned to civilian life.

(h) To aid voluntarily and to render assistance to all Marines, former Marines and FMF Corpsmen and to their widows and orphans.

(i) To perpetuate the history of the United States Marine Corps and, by fitting acts, to observe the anniversaries of historical occasions of particular interest to Marines.

You will be given instructions concerning these principles and purposes that you are to consider well before accepting the oath of membership in the Marine Corps League.

COMMANDANT: Sergeant-at-Arms, conduct the applicant(s) to the Senior Vice Commandant for instructions concerning the Emblem and Motto of the League.

(If the meeting room is not arranged to the diagram on Page 4, then the Commandant will simply call the various Officers to step forward and give their charges and omit those parts pertaining to the Sergeant-at-Arms conducting them to various stations.)

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Aye, aye, Sir

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Senior Vice Commandant, I present the applicant(s) to you, Sir, for instructions concerning the Emblem and Motto of the League.

SENIOR VICE COMMANDANT: Be at ease. The Emblem of the League is the same Emblem you earned and wore with justifiable pride during your service in the United States Marine Corps. It is composed of the Eagle atop the Globe and the entwined Anchor. "Semper Fidelis" is our motto.

The Eagle with wings spread over the Globe is the symbol of a proud Nation of justice and freedom-loving people from all quarters of the Globe; a Nation, ever reluctant to make war, but ever ready to fight for the preservation of freedom and if need be, the freedom of all oppressed peoples.

The Globe is the symbol of the field of service of a Marine or FMF Corpsman in the active service of this Country. "Our Flag's unfurled to every breeze from dawn to setting sun. We have fought in every clime and place where we could take a gun." The Globe is, as well, the symbol of the places of origin of people who compose our Nation and the worldwide proof by our Country's history, that under a democratic government, all men and women can have justice and be free.

The Anchor, entwined about the lines, is the symbol of the close association of the United States Marine Corps and the United States Navy, on whose ships Marines have fought with skill and valor in every major naval engagement in the history of our Country. The Anchor is also a symbol of the steadfast faithfulness that our fellow Marines and FMF Corpsmen have always shown in defense of our Country and the principles and ideals for which it stands. "Semper Fidelis," our motto, means Always Faithful. Marines and FMF Corpsmen love their country and are taught to regard their call to duty above every personal consideration. As you well know, having acquitted yourself honorably and faithfully as a Marine or FMF Corpsman, a true Marine or FMF Corpsman always faithfully discharges his/her duty even unto death. They feel a just pride in the accomplishments their predecessors have helped to build into the traditions of the Marine Corps and the Marine Corps League and are gratified and proud to proclaim to the world, "Once a Marine, Always a Marine."

SENIOR VICE COMMANDANT: Sergeant-at-Arms, you will conduct the applicant(s) to the Judge Advocate for further instructions concerning the purposes of the League.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: Be at ease. Though the United States Marine Corps has been in existence since November 10, 1775, it was not until 1923 that Marines discharged from active service banded together to preserve among themselves, the associations and comradeship they had known while serving actively with the Corps.

Increased membership and gradually crystallized objectives resulted in nationwide recognition. By an Act of Congress, and signed by the President of the United States, on 4 August 1937 the Marine Corps League became a nationally recognized Veterans' Organization. You are about to become a member of that organization, and have the right to enjoy the association and mutual aid of your former comrades-in-arms in this League, the National outgrowth of a proud fighting fraternity. In the years to come, let us trust that your zeal in the work of the League, for the accomplishment of its purposes and your personal conduct in your community, will increase the luster of an already great organization.

It will always remain our purpose to band together, by new ties of comradeship, all those who now bear, or have borne arms in the Marine Corps during their active military support of our beloved Country, to the end that the proud and fine traditions of the Corps may be upheld and preserved for the Marines and FMF Corpsmen who are to follow after us; to hold before the eyes of our countrymen, the memory and sacrifice of those who gave the last full measure of devotion; to make that sacrifice, if the need requires, as did those of our fellow Marines and FMF Corpsmen who laid down their lives on the Altar of their Country, that this Nation may continue as the beacon of light of justice and freedom for self-governing men and women, among the people of the world.

Though devoted to high ideals and purposes, the League does not neglect the current needs of its members and their families. Mutual consideration and assistance are essential requirements. Recently discharged Marines and FMF Corpsmen must be assisted in making adjustments upon their return to civilian life, and given encouragement to serve their community and their Country faithfully as they did while under arms. As they were the choicest of the choice in their service to their Country, so should they be the most respected leaders in their community. The widows, widowers, and children of deceased Marines and FMF Corpsmen must be protected and counseled and not be allowed to suffer for want of the necessities of life. Ponder well then these things that become your duties as a member of the League. Such obligations should not be lightly assumed; for once accepted, no honorable person can ever forget nor neglect them.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: Sergeant-at-Arms, you will conduct the applicant(s) to the Altar for further instructions.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Aye, aye, Sir

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Sir Commandant, I present the applicant(s) to you for further instruction.

COMMANDANT: You have received instructions concerning the emblem and motto of the Marine Corps League and instructions concerning our principles and purposes. Let me assure you that the oath you are about to take can in no way conflict with any political or religious views you may entertain. Let me further assure you that during the meetings of the League, no political or sectarian debate is permitted. We stand united by a common love of Country, a consciousness of having faithfully served her in the same brotherhood of fighting men and women and a sincere determination to continue that service by pursuit and practice of the purposes for which we are organized. In view of these instructions and assurances, and upon careful consideration, are you willing to accept the oath of membership in the Marine Corps League? If so, answer, I am.

COMMANDANT: (Raps twice for all members to rise.) Raise your right hand and using your name where I use mine, repeat after me:

By their vote, your fellow members have indicated their faith and trust in your zeal, ability, and integrity. It is their belief that you will be earnest, honest, and faithful in the discharge of your duties and responsibilities. You should at once acquaint yourself with the laws of the Marine Corps League, the Department and the Detachment. In addition, you should acquire a complete working knowledge of the requirements of your particular office. Keep ever in mind the purposes of the League, conducting yourself as to exemplify those purposes in everything you do in your official capacity. Especially be vigilant to respect and honor your deceased Brothers-in-Arms and to assist and protect your fellow members and their families. Never neglect an opportunity to advance the interests and welfare of the League and your Detachment, (Department, or the National Organization) When your tour of duty has been completed, may it with justice be said that you helped to win the respect of the public, for the League, and your Detachment (Department or National Board of Trustees) and the admiration and gratitude of your fellow Marines.

INSTALLING OFFICER: Commandant, Sir, upon you reposes the highest and most important responsibility that can rest upon any officer of the Marine Corps League. (The Detachment is the most important unit in the League for it is composed of the membership, which is the very heart of the League. Without the Detachment, the other units of the League would have no reason for existence. The life and growth of the League begins with the Detachment).

 To be used only in a Detachment installation - when installing a Department or National Officers, omit all words in parenthesis.*

Hold constantly before the eyes of your fellow members, the great principles for which the League strives. Lead and govern fairly and impartially. Strike quickly to prevent political, sectarian, or other improper debate in your meetings. Strive to promote harmonious interest and effort among your fellow members.

Be alert in supervising the work of your Officers. Require them to constantly bear in mind the obligation of their oath. Nevertheless, exercise a kindly attitude in all you say and do. Be quick to praise and cautious to admonish. To you is given the opportunity of so administering the affairs of the Detachment (substitute Department or League as appropriate) that it can and will improve in interest, work and growth.

Call upon your Staff of Officers for assistance and advice. With their help, formulate a progressive program for your term of office.

Do not accept your office lightly. Conduct yourself with the determination that the end of your tour of duty will mark a task well done. I congratulate you, Commandant, Sir.

INSTALLING OFFICER: Sergeant-at-Arms, escort the Commandant to his/her post.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Aye, aye, Sir. (Sergeant-at-Arms escorts the Commandant to the podium)

INSTALLING OFFICER: Fellow Marines/FMF Corpsmen, I present to you the Officers you have chosen. I congratulate you on your selections and venture the opinion that they have been well made. Allow me to admonish you that you cannot now stand aside and expect your Officers to guide the destinies of this Detachment (Department or League) or to ensure its growth, success, and welfare. It is your duty to assist them in every way possible and to discharge your assignments cheerfully. Help your Officers make this Detachment (Department or League) an organization that the Marine Corps League and your community will respect and honor.

INSTALLING OFFICER: Sergeant-at-Arms, proclaim the Officers of the _____ Detachment (Department) of the Marine Corps League to be duly installed into office.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: By direction and authority of the Installing Officer, I proclaim the Officers of the _____ Detachment (Department of _____ or Marine Corps League) duly installed into office.

INSTALLING OFFICER: Chaplain, you will lead us in prayer?

CHAPLAIN: (As to your religious preference, Uncover)

Heavenly Father, Supreme Commandant, we beseech Thee to bless these newly installed Officers of the Marine Corps League so that they may serve with as much benefit and credit to themselves as they have already served as United States Marines or as FMF Corpsmen in our beloved Corps. Grant, O Heavenly Father, that their guidance in our deliberations proves beneficial for a prosperous term of office. Make us, each one of us, ever mindful of our motto, "Semper Fidelis" and may our whole aim be - Thy will be done. Amen. (Cover)

INSTALLING OFFICER: (Turns to the newly elected Commandant at the podium) Again, my congratulations to you. (As you speak, shake his/her right hand and as you continue speaking, hand the gavel from your left hand to his/her left hand). I present to you, Sir Commandant, this gavel as an emblem of your authority and responsibility. I trust you will always use it discreetly and wisely.

(At this time, if desired, the following Change of Command Ceremony may be performed)

INSTALLING OFFICER: Junior Past Commandant, you may now perform the last duty of your post.

JUNIOR PAST COMMANDANT: Sergeant-at-Arms, center the Colors. All rise, please.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Aye, aye, Sir.

(At this time, the elected Commandant and the Junior Past Commandant march to the center and in front of the podium, facing the membership).

When the League Colors are brought forward by the Sergeant-at-Arms, both Commandants salute the Colors and remain facing the Colors. The Sergeant-at-Arms steps to the front of the Junior Past Commandant and presents him/her with the colors. The Sergeant-at-Arms gives a hand salute and steps back. The Commandants then face each other, and the Junior Past Commandant presents the Colors to the installed Commandant. Both Commandants then face to the Sergeant-at-Arms who gives a hand salute and the Colors are given back to him/her by the installed Commandant.

COMMANDANT: Sergeant-at-Arms, Post the Colors.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Aye, aye, Sir.

Upon command, the Sergeant-at-Arms returns the Colors to their proper place and both Commandants return to their posts. The installed Commandant conducts the rest of the meeting.

COMMANDANT: You may be seated. The ceremony is completed.

ORDER FOR RELIGIOUS FUNERAL SERVICES

(With this service being in a religious setting, it is customary for the male Marines and FMF Corpsmen to remain UNCOVERED during the entire service) NOTE: Other religious preferences may be used and/or observed.

COMMANDANT: Marines of the _____ Detachment, we are assembled here to pay Honor and Respect to one who has answered the final call.

CHAPLAIN: Almighty God, Supreme Father of us all, we come to Thee in this solemn hour with a realization of our utter helplessness. We are brought face to face with the inevitable fact of death. God of the Universe, be with us now, Helper of the helpless, Giver of eternal peace, Consoler of the disconsolate, take into Thine arms the soul of our departed brother/sister _____ and mend the wounds of his/her bereaved family. Surround them with Thy loving kindness, give to their troubled hearts that peace and comfort which only Thou canst give. Amen.

COMMANDANT: We recognize that all people are God's children and that His power and authority extends beyond the universe. We know that our ways are not always His ways, and that by reason of the frailty of humans, we frequently depart from His way. It is not always given to us to understand His purpose. Often we do not subordinate ourselves to Devine Power and teachings, nevertheless, from time to time, occasions like this bring us to a clearer understanding of our dependence upon God, and the futility of existence without Him.

He has seen fit to call our brother/sister Marine (FMF Corpsman) to his/her final reward. We cannot understand why it should be now rather than later. We must bow in submission to the Divine Will and learn to say with a humble and contrite spirit "Thy will be done." As a symbol of the comradeship that grew from our common service for our Nation he/she loved so well, we place this Marine insignia of the Eagle, Globe and entwined Anchor upon his/her breast. We shall ever cherish a memory that is lasting, until we, along with him/her, take our places in the silent halls of death.

CHAPLAIN: Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still water; He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever.

COMMANDANT: Fellow Marines of the _____ Detachment and all of you within the sound of my voice, think deeply concerning the things you have heard, give heed unto the promises and assurances of the Heavenly Father. Let them not be words without meaning. Ponder the inevitable fact that you surely will, and may soon be, called to your reward. Let the devotion of our departed brother/sister Marine (FMF Corpsman) serve as an example to you in your association with your comrades and your fellow men. As he/she enters the Great Unknown, may you resolve to so govern your life that you may, and I am sure our departed friend will, hear from the Heavenly Father these words of commendation: "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joys of the Lord." Once more hear the consoling words of our Chaplain.

CHAPLAIN: Once more, O God, we come to Thee in prayer for our departed friend and brother/sister, and once more we beseech Thee to receive his/her soul into the joys of Thy Kingdom. Bowed down with grief and a sense of the futility of human existence apart from Thee, we are not always able to understand Thy divine purposes. It has pleased Thee to take from us our departed friend and to leave his/her loved ones without his/her loving companionship; nevertheless, help us to say with resignation and faith: "Thy will be done." Wilt Thou giveth strength and courage to complete the life we have yet to live, to fight the good fight with strength, courage and with a faith that through Thy grace, in Thine own good time we shall stand in the light of Thy love, face to face with Thee, when Thou shalt make all things known unto us? Grant us to know the right and to do the right. Bring to the hearts of the bereaved ones the peace and comfort which passeth all understanding.

Guide them and direct them in all their days, enable them to understand and to believe that this is not goodbye, and that yet in a little while they may reunite with him/her who has gone before, in happiness and peace forever. As we depart and go our several ways, continue to watch over us, and if it be Thy will that the time of our departure is delayed a while, may we be granted the strength and courage to face the coming days with fortitude. And now to Him who hath given, and who taketh away, we give honor, power and glory. Amen.

CHAPLAIN: Please join me in reciting the Lord's Prayer

COMMANDANT: Brothers and sisters, family and friends, we have come to the place of final rest of our departed brother/sister Marine (FMF Corpsman) He/She is not here unless it be in spirit. His/Her earthly body, the house in which he/she lived, is all that is left to us. From the earth it came, to the earth we return it. It is a common end to which we all must come. With him/her, the golden bowl is broken, the silver string is loosened. He/She is no longer fettered with an earthly body. His/Her soul can soar through the infinite space of God's Universe. O, Death, where is thy sting? O, Grave, where is thy victory? And now, dear friend, we bid thee farewell. God grant we meet again in our Celestial home.

CHAPLAIN: (As to your religious preference, Uncover)

Our Heavenly Father and Supreme Commandant, be Thou with us as we go our several ways. Keep our feet firmly on the path of righteousness. MEMORIAL DAY SERVICE FOR MARINES

(If conducted indoors, the service should be considered the same as being conducted in a religious setting, therefore, male Marines and FMF Corpsmen shall remain UNCOVERED during the services. Other faiths, systems and practices should conform to their customs).

COMMANDANT: Sergeant-at-Arms, Advance the Colors. (As the Colors advance, the audience is requested to rise.)

COMMANDANT: All rise.

(The usual form for advancing the Colors is used or an adaptation may be made to suit the exigencies of the occasion)

COMMANDANT: The Chaplain (Reverend, Rabbi, or Father, if a clergyman/priest is participating) will give the Invocation.

CHAPLAIN: (A clergyman or priest may give his (her) own prayer, but the Marine Corps League Chaplain should use the following prayer):

“Our Father Who art in Heaven, we ask Thy blessing upon those here assembled, and upon those of our departed Marines and FMF Corpsmen who have preceded us in death. Especially, Heavenly Father, we beseech Thee on behalf of those who died in battle with none of their dear ones to comfort them and with little opportunity to prepare to report before Thy judgment throne. For all of our fellow Marines and FMF Corpsmen who faithfully served our Country and who sacrificed and bled that our people might have freedom, justice, and the right to worship Thee in their own way. We pray for Thy tender care and the everlasting hope that some day we may be reunited at Thy feet in Peace and that war and all the attendant evils will no more demand the sacrifice of the flower of human kind. Thou hast said unto us, “Greater love hath no man that he lay down his life for his friend.” Reward those of our Marines and FMF Corpsmen who have made the supreme sacrifice of their life, a way possible only with Thee, for we know Thy ways are just.”

CHAPLAIN: Please join me in the Lord's Prayer

(*) Our Father, which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil () For Thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory forever, Amen.

() Omit if Jewish, and () include if Protestant*

(At the conclusion of the Prayer, the Commandant will ask the audience to be seated.)

COMMANDANT: Please be seated.

(At this point a vocal solo may be used or a quartette/choir may be heard)

(If a speaker is to be used for a principal address, his/her address may be given at this time. The Commandant shall introduce the guest speaker. If no speaker has been engaged, the following address may be used. It may be given by the Commandant or a representative selected by him/her).

COMMANDANT: Memorial Day with its sad and sacred memories has come again. This day has been consecrated to our departed Marines and FMF Corpsmen and dedicated to patriots. It gives us an appropriate occasion to dedicate and re-consecrate ourselves to the preservation of the fruits of their victories, and the sacred heritage that was purchased by their valor and sealed with their blood.

It is right and salutary that those who did sacrifice and die, or who did sacrifice and have since died, should be remembered and honored for the invaluable service they rendered to their Country and Humanity. Let the graves of the dead be strewn with flowers and wreaths of laurel and the memory of their noble deeds be revived again in oratory and song.

The impulse that inspired us to set aside this day for remembrance of our departed Marines and FMF Corpsmen sprang from the grieving hearts of their family and friends. We cannot forget. The generations to follow us will not forget. Our expressions of love and sorrow will become an expression of gratitude and an acknowledgement of an incalculable debt to countless of generations of Americans.

We recall the glorious aspirations and hopes that filled their souls in times that demanded willingness to lay down one's life for his/her Country.

Times filled with the spirit of freedom, patriotism and devotion. Now, on this occasion, we re-ignite the fires of patriotism, freedom and liberty, and again renew the vows of loyalty to the accomplishments that our noble dead have made in past years. Glorious are the dead who died for Liberty. Blessed are those whose blood was shed for the welfare of their fellowmen.

They lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, loved and were loved. Now they are at peace. It is our prayer that they may have Peace forevermore. They are at Peace, for in the roar of conflict, they found the serenity of death. Their memories will fill our land like a benediction.

It is for us, the living, to establish a society that will ban war, and permanently retain the freedom and equal rights of all men and women of all Nations. We must see to it that these honored dead shall not have died in vain. In the days that lie ahead and of the generations to come after us, we must, if we value freedom, justice and liberty, if we love our homes, if we believe that our Country stands as a living vindication of a popular government, prove our beliefs and our patriotism in the days of trial.

(At this point, special music may again be used. A patriotic hymn is suggested)

CHAPLAIN:

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men before the Judgment seat.
Oh! Be swift, my soul to answer Him! Be jubilant my feet;
Our God is marching on.

CHAPLAIN: Once more we turn to Thee, God of Hosts, in supplication for the Marines and FMF Corpsmen who have answered their last call. Give unto them, we pray, Thy peace that passeth all understanding. May their reward be that of the good and faithful servant. For ourselves, we pray that until the next memorial occasion comes again, we shall be guided in the cause of freedom, liberty and justice so dearly won by the sacrifices of our honored dead. May the generations yet to march down the corridor of the centuries to take our places, preserve the ideals and revere the memories of these heroic dead. Amen.

CHAPLAIN: Benediction

May the Lord bless thee and keep thee.
The Lord make His face to shine upon thee,
and be gracious unto thee.
The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee and give thee Peace. Amen.

(The Commandant should prescribe the uniform requirements so that all members are dressed in the same attire.)

THE MARINE HYMN

From the halls of Montezuma,
To the shores of Tripoli,
We fight our country's battles
In the air, on land and sea.
First to fight for right and freedom
And to keep our honor clean;
We are proud to claim the title of
UNITED STATES MARINE

Our flag's unfurled to every breeze
From dawn to setting sun;
We have fought in every clime and place
Where we could take a gun;
In the snow of far off northern lands
And in sunny tropic scenes,
You will find us always on the job—
THE UNITED STATES MARINES.

Here's health to you and to our corps
Which we are proud to serve;
In many a strife we've fought for life
And never lost our nerve;
If the Army and the Navy
Ever look on heaven's scenes.
They will find the streets are guarded by UNITED STATES MARINES.
